

New Mexico Office of the Attorney General

Assistant Attorney General I (Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutor) Santa Fe, NM

Job Reference #00023914

The Special Prosecutions Division in the New Mexico Office of the Attorney General, an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) employer, is seeking applicants for a TERM Assistant Attorney General position in our Traffic Safety Resource Prosecution Unit. TERM appointments may expire due to reduction or loss of funding or when the special project or program ends with at least fourteen (14) calendar days written notice to the employee without right of appeal.

- Duties of the Traffic Resource Prosecutor will include training, education and technical support to traffic crimes prosecutors and law enforcement agencies throughout the state, as well as assisting officers in administrative hearings pursuant to the motor vehicle code. Extensive travel is required throughout the State of New Mexico. New Mexico bar admission for the Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutor is required, as well as experience in the prosecution of impaired driving cases.

Applicants must hold an active license in good standing to practice in New Mexico, or be eligible to seek a public employee limited license for government service under Rule 15-301.1 of the New Mexico Rules Governing Admission to the Bar.

Salary is commensurate with experience. To apply, please submit a resume, writing sample and three (3) professional references. This position will remain open until filled. Applicants selected for an interview must notify the Attorney General's Office of the need for a reasonable accommodation due to a Disability.

To apply please visit <https://www.nmag.gov/job-openings.aspx>